THE LAND BATTLE WILL BE RESUMED

Russia to Take Offensive on Shakhe River.

The Generals Met and Shook Hands—Stoessel Returns to Russia at Once.

VESSLS SUNK BY THE JAPS.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—It is stated on the best of authority that the battle of Shakhe river is about to be resumed by the Russians taking the offensive. A report is current that at a meeting of the council of the administration yesterday it was decided that immediate attack should be made on the forces of Marshal Oyama.

Japs Sink Vessels.

Chefu, Jan. 6.—Word reached here this morning that Japanese have sunk two Russian torpedo boats and three destroyers at Port Arthur.

Leaves For Russia.

Tokio, Jan. 6.—General Stoessel has been given his parole and will return to St. Petersburg via Nagasaki.

Officer Killed in Riot.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—The greatest confusion reigns in the interior of the empire. One of the imperial police was killed in one of the riots, which exist in profusion.

The chief of police killed was the head of the Warsaw department. He was wounded Sunday and died today.

Report Denied.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—The report this morning that the battleship Souvaroff, flagship of Admiral Rojestvensky's Baltic fleet had been sunk is denied.

Many Refused Paroles.

Port Arthur, Jan. 6.—Only eighty Russian officers accepted the parole. The rest will be held prisoners of war. All the Russian troops have marched out of Port Arthur and leave for Port Dalny today. The Japanese are removing the mines and hulks from the harbor mouth. All the forts have been taken over by the Japanese.

The Emperor Dined.

Tokio, Jan. 6.—The Diet at a special session today adopted a resolution felicitating the emperor on the success of the year's campaign, which reached its climax by the fall of Port Arthur. It attributed the victories to the emperor's illustrious virtue, thanked General Nogi and the Third Army for their glorious achievements.

Generals Shook Hands.

Headquarters Third Japanese Army, via Fusan, Jan. 6.—A meeting between Generals Stoessel and Nogi took place today at Shushi village. After the conference the generals shook hands and Stoessel mounted his horse and returned to Port Arthur.

Not Badly Damaged.

London, Jan. 6.—The Standard's Port Arthur correspondent reports that the town appears to be little damaged by the bombardment. The ruined forts resemble a hill shaken by a mighty convulsion, and in many cases every trace of the works has disappeared.

According to the Mail's Weihaiwei correspondent the British cruiser Andromeda, which sailed from Weihaiwei Wednesday morning for Port Arthur with hospital stores and surgeons, and which was not allowed to make a landing at Port Arthur, had a narrow escape, having passed two floating mines.

Japanese officials in London consider it was solely on account of the danger of the vessel striking mines that the Andromeda's offer was declined.

Russian Flagship Sinks.

Paris, Jan. 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent and Paris editor of the New York Herald telegraphs that Rojestvensky's flagship, the battleship Kiaz Souvaroff, has struck a rock and foundered.

No Bail for Nan.

New York, Jan. 6.—Justice Greenbaum denied the application of bail for Nan Patterson.

MEMPHIS MURDERER CAUGHT HERE TODAY

John Champion, Colored, Admits Shooting Woman.

The Killing Took Place December 16—Man in Jail Awaiting Memphis Officers.

HE IS WILLING TO GO BACK.

John Champion, colored, wanted in Memphis for murder, was arrested this afternoon about 1:30 o'clock by Officers Tom Potter and Emil Goureaux and is in the county jail where he will be held until the authorities from Memphis come for him.

The arrest is a good piece of work on part of Captain Woods and the officers named above. They received the information that Champion was in the city about 11:30, locating their man at 1:30. He was caught at the Frankie Dixon resort on West Kentucky avenue and readily admitted he did the killing and agreed to return without requisition papers.

The police received a letter the 17th of December, 1904, from Memphis authorities saying that John Champion, and giving a minute description, shot and killed Irene Jones and wounded Mary Love, colored, in Memphis on December 16th. The negro made his escape and had not been heard from since, but the Paducah police were cautioned to look out for him. They had been searching diligently for him since and their pains were rewarded this afternoon when his arrest was effected.

Champion said that he killed the woman, but other than this would not talk. The Paducah authorities telegraphed to Memphis notifying the police of the capture and expect officers tomorrow morning at 1:20 to take the prisoner back.

HAVE BLOODHOUNDS

On Trail of a Negro Who Assaulted a Girl.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 6.—Miss Alice Brightwell, a protegee in the family of John T. Bate, a bank teller, was assaulted by a negro in Mr. Bate's residence at Crescent Hill, a high-class residence section of Louisville. The young woman was badly injured. A detail of police was at once sent to the scene and four officers with bloodhounds have taken up the trail of the negro who is still at large.

BIG FIRE.

At Springfield, Mass., This Afternoon.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 6.—Fire started in the city hall this afternoon and gutted the structure in twenty minutes, spreading to the adjoining structures, including Gilmore's hotel, Gilmore's opera house, and a large department store.

VERY SIMPLE

Were Services At Theodore Thomas' Funeral.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—The funeral of Theodore Thomas was held this morning at St. James Episcopal church, and was marked by the simplicity of the services and the musical tribute from the members of the Chicago orchestra, which Thomas made famous.

VERY SOLITARY IS HER CONFINEMENT

Mrs. Chadwick Allowed to See no One Now.

Clash of Federal and Civil Authorities Over Which Has Control of Her.

HER ATTORNEY VERY MAD.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 6.—As a result of the clash between federal and county authorities that has been on since Mrs. Chadwick arrived from New York as to who had jurisdiction over the prisoner's care while she is in the county jail, federal authorities have definitely stated that they would assume control under authority vested in them by a decision of the supreme court of the United States in a similar case in another state, and which they think can be applied in this instance.

A dispute has arisen because of the privilege assumed by former Sheriff Barry in permitting her husband and other persons to call on Mrs. Chadwick, contrary to the order of a federal judge that written permission for such interview or call should first be obtained from that court.

As a county official Sheriff Mulhern who has succeeded Barry, today obtained from the county solicitor an opinion to the effect that in as much as the jail was a county institution a United States prisoner was no more than a county prisoner while confined therein and was under custody of the sheriff.

An opinion was handed to the sheriff by District Attorney John J. Sullivan later in the day to the effect that federal authorities controlled Mrs. Chadwick's care and that no person should be allowed to see her without their permission. It was maintained by Sullivan that Mrs. Chadwick is a federal prisoner and the sheriff is for the time being, a federal keeper.

To enforce his order two deputy marshals have alternated in the county jail in guarding the way to Mrs. Chadwick's cell. Not even her attorney J. P. Dawley, was allowed to see her yesterday because he had not obtained permission from federal officials. Dawley asserted the prerogative of his calling to see his client, but the powerful deputy marshal refused him entrance to the woman's corridor of the jail.

Dawley was furious and said to the marshal that if he had half as much physical strength as he had determination he would throw the marshal out the window.

EAGER TO STOP IT.

The President Willing to Conciliate If Called Upon.

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Roosevelt is so earnest in his desire for the restoration of peace in the Far East between Russia and Japan that he has decided to make friendly advances to the other looking to peace if asked to make them. On account of the jealousy among the European powers he believes the peace negotiations finally must be made through this country, and he will make the necessary representations whenever he is called on to do so.

DECLARED ELECTED.

Legislature Adjourns Until Next Monday.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 6.—The joint session of the legislature yesterday declared Charles S. Deneen governor and the other Republican candidates elected. The legislature then adjourned until next Monday when the state officers will be sworn in and the governor inaugurated with the usual ceremonies.

MEDALS FOR SOLDIERS.

Who Served in Spanish and Philippine Wars and China Relief Expedition.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Secretary Taft has forwarded to the house a draft of a resolution authorizing the president to cause medals to be struck and presented to officers and soldiers and others who served in the Spanish war, the China relief expedition and the Philippine insurrections.

STRANGE THINGS IN THE NEWS OF TODAY

Can to a Dog's Tail Explodes With Fatal Effect.

Woman Fatally Burned By Her Celluloid Comb Catching On Fire as She Stooped Over.

MOUTH WASH STRANGLES MAN.

Shelbyville, Ind., Jan. 6.—A prank played by two boys on a dog ended in a tragedy in the southeast part of Rush county. George Gowdy, aged 15, nephew of United States Consul General Gowdy, and Con Winship, a playmate, while rabbit hunting, passed a natural gas well near which they found an old empty can. They tied it to the tail of their dog, and started the animal on the run. The dog never stopped till he neared the Winship home.

The howling of the dog and the noise of the pursuing boys caused one of the members of the family to open the front door, when into the house the hound bounded, the can still dangling to his tail. Through one room and another he ran until finally he passed near the crib containing a ten-months-old child.

The can struck the crib and an explosion followed which startled the neighborhood. The mother who stood near the door, was blown into the yard, and badly bruised by her fall on the frozen ground. The child was blown from its crib across the room and against the wall and seriously, but not fatally injured. The windows were all shattered and the crib was almost annihilated.

The dog left the premises, but returned later minus his caudal appendage. The can had formerly contained nitro-glycerine used as the gas well.

Comb Caught Fire.

Montgomery, W. Va., Jan. 6.—Mrs. Wm. Carrick was seriously, perhaps fatally, burned at her home here while attempting to rake out a coin which had fallen beneath the grate in which a hot coal fire was burning. Her head was brought close to the fire and the heat ignited a celluloid comb in her hair. Her tresses caught fire at once. She jerked the comb from her head, but it fell upon her shoulder, setting fire to her dress.

Strangled by Mouthwash.

Minneola, Tex., Jan. 6.—W. A. Moody, a prominent merchant, was washing his mouth with a decoction containing a large percentage of carbolic acid. Something distracted his attention, a part of the stuff slipped down his throat and strangled him to death.

Electric Sunstroke.

Sharon, Pa., Jan. 6.—Supt. Warren Clifton, Assistant Manager William Kromlish and Head Electrician M. McKee, of the Carnegie Steel company, received an electric sunstroke at one of the blast furnaces. They were using an electric burner when they fell over unconscious. Several other employees were affected but not seriously.

Physicians were called and they stated that the men were suffering from symptoms similar to sunstroke and were treated accordingly. The men are reported to be recovering.

NEW RIFLES

To Be Adopted for Our Soldiers and Sailors.

Birmingham, Jan. 6.—The Post learns that the American government has ordered several battery machine guns of a particular pattern from the Creusot works in France. It is understood these guns will be used as models for an improved weapon to be adopted by the American army and navy.

FIVE KILLED.

And the B. and O. Tied Up By a Freight Wreck.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 6.—A freight wreck occurred this morning on the Baltimore and Ohio railway at Glencoe. The entire crew of five is reported killed. Forty-two cars are derailed, the tracks are blocked and traffic is tied up.

SIX YEAR TERMS FOR PRESIDENTS

Is Proposed in Amendment Just Offered.

The Statehood Bill Again Claims Attention of the United States Senate.

NO ACTION ON OMNIBUS BILL.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Senator Bailey has submitted to the senate a proposed amendment to the constitution, fixing the term of the president at six years and making him ineligible for re-election. The text of the amendment follows:

"The executive power shall be vested in the president of the United States, who shall hold his office during a term of six years, and, together with the vice president, chosen for the same term, shall be elected as provided in article 12 of the amendments to the constitution. The president shall forever be ineligible to re-election, nor shall any person be eligible to election to the presidency who has served as president under any succession provided for in the constitution or laws made in pursuance thereof."

The joint statehood bill again yesterday occupied the major portion of the attention of the senate and Senator Nelson completed his speech in support of it.

The omnibus claim bill was read in part but no effort was made to secure action on it.

Bills for the reorganization of the medical corps of the army and regulating promotions of army officers in the ordinance department were passed.

USED DYNAMITE.

To Blow Up the House of Wealthy Negro.

Petersburg, Tenn., Jan. 6.—Early yesterday dynamite was exploded under the house of Joe Short, colored. One side of the house was torn out, the chimneys scattered and the floor destroyed, with all the articles of furniture, while only by a miracle did the occupants escape with their lives. The work of placing the dynamite was badly bungled, otherwise the house and occupants would assuredly have been blown to atoms. Bloodhounds have been telephoned for. The Short's are wealthy negroes, having been left a portion of the estate of their former owners many years ago. One boy is thought to be fatally injured.

FAVORABLE REPORT.

On the Appointment of Crum As Collector.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The senate committee on commerce has authorized a favorable report on the nomination of W. D. Crum to be collector of the port of Charleston, S. C. Confirmation of the Crum nomination has been opposed for three sessions of congress by Senator Tillman.

SIX SAVED.

Ship Wrecked Sailors Picked Up By Ocean Liner.

New York, Jan. 6.—The Hamburg-liner Prinz Albert, which arrived from the Mediterranean this morning had among its passengers six shipwrecked seamen, from the schooner Julian Archer, abandoned in mid-ocean Christmas day. The men suffered greatly before being rescued.

COL. W. J. BRYAN

May Become President of Illinois College.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 6.—At a meeting of the trustees of Illinois college at Jacksonville yesterday a letter was read from William J. Bryan, an alumni, who signified his wish to meet with the trustees regarding the welfare of the college and who expresses a desire to come at his own expense and lecture on economics. The date probably will be arranged to meet Mr. Bryan, and it is hoped by the trustees that this meeting will result in placing him in a position to dictate the policy of the college, and perhaps to become its president.

A LIFE SENTENCE FOR GILLESPIE

Convicted at Rising Sun of Killing His Sister.

The Trial Was Very Sensational and Had Lasted Several Weeks—Several Others Charged.

A NEW TRIAL IS ASKED FOR.

Rising Sun, Ind., Jan. 6.—James Gillespie who with his sister, Mrs. Belle Seward and Myron Barbour and wife, were indicted for the murder of his twin sister, Elizabeth Gillespie, was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday afternoon. The other defendants will be tried separately, as in the case of James. The trial lasted over five weeks and was bitterly fought throughout. Elizabeth Gillespie was shot and killed while in the parlor of her home.

This was the second trial of James Gillespie. At the former trial, a year ago, the four defendants were tried together, but the jury failed to agree and was dismissed. Since then Mrs. Seward and Mr. and Mrs. Barbour were admitted to bail but in the case of James Gillespie bail was refused.

When the case again came before the court five weeks ago James demanded a separate trial, which was granted.

The jury was out three hours yesterday and when they declared their verdict was guilty and the penalty life imprisonment, the crowd broke from the court room and cheers for the jury were given outside. As the verdict was read James Gillespie attempted to smile, but it ended in failure. Gillespie's attorney today filed a motion for a new trial.

CHARGES REVOKED.

Presenters, However, Reserve Right to Draw Up New Charges.

Philadelphia, Jan. 6.—J. Frederick Jenkins, one of the presenters of Bishop Talbot, arrived last night, and handed to Rev. Dr. Bodine, president of the board of inquiry, a paper withdrawing the presentment.

The presenters reserve the right to draw up a new presentment based on charges contained in the one now withdrawn, if Talbot does not himself ask for trial.

After reading the withdrawal Dr. Bodine said:

"The charges against the bishop of Central Pennsylvania having been withdrawn by presenters, it has been hoped arrangements may be made whereby a meeting of the board of inquiry could be avoided. As this has been found impracticable the meeting will take place on directed by the presiding bishop at 10 a. m. Tuesday, Jan. 10. The place of meeting will be in the mansion house in the city of Reading."

THE CUMBERLAND

Is Likely to Be Well Treated by Congress.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Cumberland river improvement proposals have been referred to Representative Bishop of Michigan, with instructions to report to the river and harbors committee. The chances for the Cumberland appear to be good, although there is a disposition to cut down the appropriation because so much has been done for the Tennessee river. Representative Gaines is presenting statements to show that the territories by the two waterways are absolutely independent, and is arguing against the injustice done the Cumberland by that view of the situation.

Gallatin Pitcher.

Gallatin, Tenn., Jan. 6.—"Hub" Perdue, crack pitcher of the Butchers baseball team last season, has signed with Paducah at a salary of $75 per month, and will pitch for that team next season. The contract was signed and forwarded last night. "Hub" and Billy Frakes will make a strong box team in the K. I. T. league. Frakes draws a salary of $100, but no doubt Perdue will catch him before the season is far advanced, as it is said by experts that he pitches the best drop ball in the south.

STATE MEETING

OF THE Y. M. C. A. TO BE HELD IN OWENSBORO.

Probably Send Delegates to the Gathering.

Much interest is being manifested over the state Y. M. C. A. convention, which will be held in Owensboro on February 16, 17, 18 and 19. It is expected that over 500 delegates will be in attendance.

A large number of prominent speakers will be on the program. Among them are the following:

Henry B. Macfarland, Washington, D. C.; S. D. Gordon, Cleveland, O.; F. S. Brockman, China; Frank H. Burt, Chicago; E. W. Peck, Minnesota; C. C. Michener, A. G. Knebel, George J. Fisher, M. D., and Tom Keenan, of New York city. Mr. Geo. B. Hodge has also been invited to present the educational work.

The convention will be held in the auditorium of the Third Baptist church.

By February it is expected that Paducah's association will again be on its feet, and will send delegates to the state convention.

The man who suspects everybody is surely a suspicious character.

THE COMMENCEMENT A MOOTED QUESTION

Unusual Complications May Arise Later.

The Graduating Class This Year Has Already Graduated, Finishing
Last Year.

CONFUSION OVER NEW GRADE.

One matter which will have to be settled by the new school board is the commencement question.

This year the graduating class will be composed of those in the 12th grade only, and it really isn't compulsory that the members graduate, for only those who wanted to attend and take the course, compose the class. Last year the board decided that another grade be added, but the 11th grade, then the graduating class, was graduated regularly by commencement exercises and those members who wanted to return and take the extra grade added this year, were permitted to do so. The teachers do not know whether or not they can be asked to graduate again and if the board decides that they cannot, there will be no commencement this year, as the present 11th grade will have to take the 12th grade next year before it can graduate.

"I don't know what will be done with this matter," Supt. Leib explained this morning, "and it is left with the board. Of course we will have exercises of some kind, as I think the pupils in the 12th grade, about eleven in number, will desire to have them, but as far as compelling them to 'graduate' again, I don't know what will be done with the matter."

There will be a commencement of the grammar schools, however, but the High school pupils do not know what they will have and are looking forward to the settlement of the question.

The diplomas given out in the High school can be adapted to the 12th grade as readily as the 11th, and will be given the pupils in the 12th grade even if the regular commencement is dispensed with.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Held Another Meeting Yesterday Afternoon at 4 O'Clock.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon held a special session to go over the figures in its annual report, and has not yet completed that document, but is putting the finishing touches on it.

The board expects the pumping station improvements to be completed in a few days, and intends to ask for a number of improvements for next year. The street inspector will be instructed to give personal attention to the practice of sweeping the brick streets without first giving them a god sprinkling.

The attention of the board has also been called to a pipe that empties steam into the street in front of the Paducah Gas Co. on North Third street. Often the steam blows half way across the street without cessation, and frightens horses. The only objection to the steam is that it frightens teams, and as it can easily be turned in some other direction, the board anticipates no trouble in having the trouble remedied.

GREAT STRIDES

Are Being Made By the Postal Telegraph Company.

Manager J. B. Allen, of the Postal Telegraph Co., has received from headquarters the annual statement of the company, which shows that it has made wonderful progress during the year.

It now has lines to 1094 more places than it did last year, and has exclusive lines to 1921 places. It has lines to 21,071 places in all, going as far north as Alaska, as far south as Florida, Texas, and Mexico, and as far west as the coast. Its eastern connections reach to Maine.

There Was No Evidence.

Alex Butler, a farmer, applied at police headquarters this morning for a warrant against a man, saying that he had taken a $10 bill from his pocketbook. Butler alleges that he was ill and drinking last night and gave the man his pocketbook, containing a $20 gold piece and three $10 bills. When he got the purse back he claims one of the bills was missing.

No warrant was issued as there was no evidence against the accused.

ICE GAVE WAY.

And Miss Rose Hershine Received a Cold Ducking.

Miss Rose Hershine, of North Sixth street, broke through the ice while skating on a small pond near the I. C. Incline at the foot of Campbell street yesterday but was rescued by companions.

The ice broke and let the young lady into the icy water up to her waist. She cried for help but her predicament was seen as soon as the ice gave way, and she was soon rescued. She was thoroughly drenched but this morning is suffering from nothing worse than a slight cold.

CHANCE FOR PADUCAH.

Pythians Will Not Stand for Making Home An Almshouse.

Members of the Knights of Pythias all over the state seem to be wrought up over the exposure of the alleged contract made with Fayette county giving the latter the right to send the indigent of the county to the Pythian Home when it is completed, and prominent members of the order openly declare that no such thing will be permitted, and that if such a contract has been made, the board of control and grand lodge will repudiate it, and take the home elsewhere. In this event Paducah would stand an excellent chance of getting it, as the bid was next best to that of Lexington.

WOODS AND MOORE

ARE TIPPED FOR THE POSITION OF PLAIN CLOTHES MEN.

If They Accept There Will Be Two Vacancies On the Force to Be Filled.

There is a great deal of speculation over who will be selected to become "plain clothes" men, or detectives on the local police force.

It is said that Captain Joe Woods and Officer T. J. Moore will be offered the places. If they are, and accept, there will be two vacancies on the force to fill, that of captain, and of one patrolman.

In case these two accept, it is reported that Lieutenant Frank Harlan will be promoted to the position of captain, a place for which he is eminently fitted, because of his thirty-five years of faithful experience, as well as because of his ability and popularity. This will leave the lieutenant vacancy, and one of the regular patrolmen will be selected to fill it.

Captain Woods and Officer Moore are both good men for the positions of detective. Captain Woods is in charge of the force from noon until midnight, and Officer Moore was formerly lieutenant of police.

The appointments are to be made Monday by the police commissioners.

THE NEW BISHOP.

Will Be Consecrated Jan. 25—Reaches Louisville Feb. 1.

The consecration of Bishop-elect Charles Edward Woodcock, of the Kentucky diocese will take place in St. John's Episcopal church at Detroit, January 25. The service is one of the most elaborate and impressive in the ritual of the church. Bishop Tuttle will preside and he will be assisted by two other bishops, who will be designated by him. An official committee will represent the diocese at the function, besides which many Louisville churchmen are planning to go to Detroit at that time. Dr. Woodcock will come to Louisville to live immediately after the consecration, beginning his official duties here on February 1.

THIS PADUCAH MAN

WANTS A WIFE

Advertises in Seattle, Washington Paper for Life Partner.

HAS MADE PLENTY OF MONEY.

WANTED—A wife; must be between 18 and 28 years of age; good looks not necessary, but will not be found against applicants; no blondes need apply; must be willing to travel continuously for three years. Address, Zachary Young Little, Hotel Washington, Seattle.

Z. Y. Little, of Paducah, Ky., wants a wife, says the Seattle, Wash., Star, of recent date.

Mr. Little, who is a retired Klondiker, and is at present stopping at the Hotel Washington, has expressed this desire and is particularly anxious to marry a Seattle girl. Inasmuch as all of his good luck started in this city, he believes that it would only be tempting fate to enter into the solemn contract of matrimony anywhere else.

Mr. Little has an abundance of good qualities to make him eligible in the matrimonial race and the Seattle maiden who captures his heart and hand will be open to congratulation.

For—He is comparatively young—36 years old.

He is good looking; tall, broad shouldered, has wavy brown hair, hazel eyes and a very handsome drooping mustache.

He has no bad habits; does not smoke or drink and belongs to no club.

He is very wealthy, having "cleaned up" half a million in the Alaskan gold fields.

In conversation with a Star reporter last night Mr. Little explained his reasons for wanting to be married in Seattle and why he does not object to having the same made known through the columns of this paper.

"About 12 years ago I left my home city—Paducah, Ky.—with a starting capital of $50. I managed to get as far as Seattle and finally went to work here at my trade, being at that time a plumber. When the Klondike craze struck this city in '97 I was among the first to start for the new Mecca, my boss having grub-staked me for the trip.

"I was among the few lucky ones and made enough to put both my old employer and myself on easy street for the remainder of our lives. "Through careful investments I have doubled my capital, and since then have traveled considerably to get acquainted with this big world of ours.

"Finally I decided to get married and, as I do not know any young woman whom I fancy as a steady mate for life, I have made up my mind to try 'pot luck' here in Seattle, the starting point of my success.

"No, I don't object to your publishing this story. I am not ashamed of my desire to get a wife and I believe that some honest, attractive young woman, who, like myself, is tired of single life, might be willing to at least communicate with me.

"I much prefer a young woman who is working for her living. I don't care a rap for helpesses, as I have plenty of money for two."

Mr. Little requested that any applications for his heart, hand and a share of his fortune, will communicate with him by mail, giving their address so that he may answer at his leisure. He will have no dealings with matrimonial agencies.

Goes Into Business.

Manager Ed Bowles, who has gone into the fruit and produce business with Mr. E. K. Bonds, has resigned his position as manager of the J. F. Jeans commission house here, and will retire when a successor is appointed and arrives.

BURNING COTTON.

The criticism of those who are reported to have burned cotton for the purpose of making that remaining more costly to those who use it and depend on it for a livelihood, is not altogether pleasant. The Owensboro Inquirer voices a sentiment that is likely to become popular, when it says:

"As long as there is a man or woman in the United States or any other country in need of clothing an act like this is criminal. The price of cotton is lower than it was last year, but in the aggregate it will bring more this year than last year. No man has a right to destroy what some other man needs, even if it is his own. It is this spirit of selfishness that has worked so much harm in last quarter of a century, and which will precipitate trouble of a serious nature if it is persisted in. Every man seems to want everything in sight, regardless of the rights or necessities of any other man. It is hurrying hateful times upon us, and the wise man who is timid is praying that it may be deferred beyond his time.

"The spirit is everywhere. In our own community it is beginning to be rampant. Let me have what I want whether any other man gets anything or not, seems to be the rule and guide of conduct. It will bring evil upon the people. There is no remedy for it as far as the most philosophical mind can see. Any other trait of the human mind can be approached by reason but there is no hope for selfishness, which shuts itself up as soon as it perceives that an attack is being made on it, and then its fortress is impregnable. Not all the thirteen-inch guns of reason, charity, nay, even of religion itself, can do anything to the defense of the man who surrounds himself with this rampart of everything for himself and nothing for anybody else which he is not able to seize with the ready hand and defend with the strong arm."

LAY ON, MACDUFF.

The four Republican members of the board of aldermen did right last night in refusing to give in to the Democrats, who have already secured control of one branch of the general council. It is to be hoped that the new members will keep up the good work. All the Republicans askis for the chairmanship of one of the boards. The Democrats took their choice and selected the council, and have elected one of their number chairman.The Republicans ask for only a fair exchange, and there being no choice left them, they desire to elect one of their own men chairman of the remaining board, and seem in a good position to do it.If the Democrats are not disposed to do the generous, magnanimous act, they alone will be responsible for the paralysis of public business that will follow. The four Republicans can well afford to be independent and demand what they are entitled to.If public business comes to a standstill, not a cent of money can be paid out of the city treasury, and if there is any starving out, only one Republican will suffer, all the rest of the administration being Democrats. If all these Democratic officials can get along without their salaries, certainly Col. Dorian, the Republican city treasurer, can do likewise, especially as he has all the city's money. Besides, his credit is good.The Democrats might as well come off their high horse. They have all they are entitled to, and ought not to expect or seek more, especially when they stand so little chance of getting it.If Councilman McCarty is entitled to hold his office from now until next January, he is entitled by the same token to hold it until the following January. By rights he should not hold it at all, because he is not the choice of the people, the term for which he was elected having expired.
If he holds now, however, because no successor has qualified, he will be still holding this time next year, because there is according to the city solicitor no vacancy now, and for the same reasons would be no vacancy then. The best thing to do is to let the mayor get on the safe side by making an appointment. We want to see whom he will appoint, anyhow.The man who gets up when the legislature meets in special session January 12, at Frankfort, and demands to know why, if the site is too small, that fact was not ascertained before the plans were adopted, will make his mark. And he insists on knowing he will deserve the commendation of the entire state. It is not plain what's up, but evidently there is something back of this special session move besides the laudable desire to give the state the proper kind of a capitol on the right kind of a site.Owensboro now has to pay the fiddler. She got the state fair a couple of years ago, and it was a bite bigger than she could chew. The court of appeals has just decided that the guarantors must pay the amounts they guaranteed, no matter how much "monkey business" the state managers of the fair indulged in.
The Owensboro subscribers declined to make good the shortage, claiming that the affair was extravagantly and incapably managed, and the apellate court says they must.Mayor Yeiser is reported to have suggested that a route down the river front for the Paducah-Cairo railroad, would not be disapproved by him. He must have changed considerably since he vetoed the I. C.
track down the river front.Mr. Jim Dent, a drummer from Leitchfield, was visiting in Paducah yesterday.

EASY MONEY

MAN WORKS A NEW GAME IN CAIRO."Inspects" Cash Registers and Gets Away With a Roll.Cairo, Ill., seems to be a good town for "easy money."A man went there yesterday and had some cards printed bearing the name "W. A. Woodruff, Milwaukee," after the words "National Cash Register Inspector." He proceeded to "do" the town.He is alleged to have gone to various places where there were cash registers, and while ostensibly making his inspections pocketed all the money he could get.

The Cairo Bulletin says:

"Woodruff was well prepared to do the work which he claimed he was sent out to do and had evidently been employed at one time in that capacity. He carried a bag full of tools necessary to take apart the registers and put them together, had a supply of oil and knew every part of the register thoroughly. He made a good appearance and impressed many of the people he visited very favorably."Some of the merchants had been visited only about two weeks ago by a repairer from the same house and they thought it rather strange another one should follow in such a short time."Woodruff, it is said, formerly lived in Cairo and was a cub pilot on the tug Theseus in 1891 under Rans Samson."It is probable that no great effort will be made to apprehend Woodruff but Cairo merchants will be very careful in the future about allowing strangers to inspect their cash registers."

THE RIVERS.

"San Toy," which may be referred to as the first important offering of the present season in the way of a musical comedy, will be seen at The Kentucky Saturday night only. Mr.
Fisher will present it with James T. Powers in the roll of "Lt." Powers was the paramount feature of the play during its run at Daly's and has never appeared on the road in the piece until this season. He is surrounded by a large company, of which the principals are Margaret McKinney, Geo. K. Fortescue, John
Peachey, Nagle Barry, Chas. Arling,
Florence F. Smith and Fred W.
Huntley. There is but one company playing "San Toy" and the cast and production to be seen here is identically the same that Mr. Fisher will take into New York later in the season. The "San Toy" seat sale will begin today.

Tim Murphy has been on the stage fifteen years. In that time he has created 43 characters. He has produced ten plays. He has never bought a play from a foreign author. He has traveled over 10,000 miles a year, an aggregate of 150,- 000 miles or six times around the world. He has paid authors nearly $62,000 in royalty, scene painters over $50,000 on productions, and the railroads have been paid about $56,- 000 for his companies' transportation.
For his first independent venture as a star he secured a play by one of the best known authors in America. It was the nearest thing to a failure the celebrated comedian has ever come. Since then he has had no plays made to order. He has adapted himself to the roles when he felt he had a good comedy, often creating a character the author had no idea he had and he has not had a failure since. Seats on sale tomorrow at 10 a. m. at The Kentucky for Monday night.

All lovers of sensational comedy drama will be pleased to know that "Weary Willie Walker" will be at The Kentucky on next Tuesday evening. A company of more than ordinary merit has been engaged to interpret the different parts. The piece made such a hit last season that the managers have all asked for return dates and a treat is vouchsafed for all who attend. Popular prices.

The Lyman Twins at the Races proved a good drawing card at The Kentucky last night. The twins come to the city every year and are popular here. There are really twins and except from a slight difference in size cannot be told apart. The show is one of those fast and furious kinds with all sorts of mixups and affords amusement from start to finish. There are several bright and catchy musical features interspersed and the cue music played was also very catchy. The show was good and had fair patronage.

GOT ALONG.

Pretty Girl of 17 With Energy.

"During the winter of 1901-02 (I was then 17 years of age) I attended a Grammar School in Rolla, N. Dak. staying with some friends of ours and working for my board between school hours.

I used to get up early in the morning to do my housework but as those people got up very late I would not cook breakfast but only make coffee. Tired of working and in a hurry to go to school I would eat but a snack and a cup of strong coffee for my breakfast and it was not long until I got to be nervous, had headaches and could not sleep.

"One day our Prof. Young was telling us what effect coffee had on one's system. I compared his words with how I felt and found that coffee was ruining my health. So I tried to quit but found I was a slave to it, but quit just the same. I did not know what to drink—I hated milk or tea so I would drink nothing but water; got poor and thin and finally left school to remove to Belma, Wash., where at present by the constant use of Postum you can find me a bright, healthy girl. After we settled down Papa opened a grocery store.

"At this time I was so ill I could not do a thing, and Mama was anxious about me. She would prepare some coffee and try to have me drink it in place of water, but every time I drank it I noticed it made me worse. One day while I was looking around in the store I noticed your Postum as a food-drink. I asked Papa if he knew what it was, but he said he did not, but found he had to keep it, so I took a package of it home and said I would try it, made it according to directions and it was delicious. After using Postum two weeks I was much less nervous and noticed I was getting a littler fatter, so I persuaded Mama to use it for the whole family. Everyone of them liked it and now they all complain if they cannot have Postum.

"After a while I got to be healthy and tired of being indoors I went out to take orders for the store and many a customer I persuaded to use Postum.

"One lady told me that they used coffee because they could get premiums for the wrappers but she admitted they did not like coffee at all. I left them a package of Postum on trial and the next time I came around she returned it—said they did not like it. She hadn't made it right. It was about dinner time so I said, 'Let me make it for you; I am sure you will like it,' so I prepared the drink according to directions and had dinner with them and they all said it was delicious and have used nothing else since. That lady thanked me afterwards for Postum; it improved their health, she said." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

N CTION HELD BY THE ALDERMEN

Vote for President Last Night
Was a Tie.

Eight Ballots Taken for Aldermen Farley and Davis for Presiding Officer.

ADJOURNED UNTIL TONIGHT

The board of aldermen met last night and was unable to elect a chairman, the vote being four and four.

All the members were present when Clerk Bailey rapped for order. He stated that there had been some question relative to whether or not Alderman Davis held over as chairman until someone else was elected, and that he would ask the city solicitor for his opinion.

The solicitor responded and said that Mr. Davis could not hold over, but Mr. Davis arose and said that the legal points could be waived as he had no desire to try to hold over.

Clerk Bailey then announced that the election of a president was in order, and Mr. G. R. Davis was nominated by Alderman Smith, and Capt. J. C. Farley by Alderman Starks.

Four ballots were taken with the vote, four to four, Alderman Davis voting for Mr. Farley and Mr. Farley for Alderman Davis.

Alderman Farley moved that the board adjourn, seconded by Alderman Kraus. The vote was put viva voce, and Clerk Bailey stated that he would put the question to a ye and nay vote, as it seemed impossible to determine whether or not it had carried.

There was some little discussion, all good natured, and Clerk Bailey then put it to a viva voce vote again and decided that the motion was lost.

Four more ballots were taken, with the same result—four to four, and a motion of Alderman Durrett to adjourn until tonight was carried.

BOAT ARRIVES.

Many Visit the Handsome New Kentucky, of the Tennessee River Line.

The new steamer Kentucky, built at Howard's for the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company, arrived at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in charge of Major J. H. Ashcraft and Capt. James Koger, Oscar Hopkins, pilot and Fred Buthman, engineer. The boat made daylight runs and had a fine trip down.

Hundreds of people have visited her since she was greeted with the usual blowing of whistles and ringing of bells. The crew of the Tennessee, which arrived last night, was transferred to her today, and she leaves in command of Capt. King Hale in the Tennessee river trade in place of the Tennessee tomorrow. The new boat is as complete as money and skill could make her, and cost $30,000.

The Tennessee will go to the bank until disposed of by being placed in some other trade or sold.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. STRANGER THAN FICTION.

A Remedy Which Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Stomach Troubles.

The remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery nor yet a secret patent medicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles with which nine out of ten suffer.

The remedy is in the form of a pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin (government test) golden seal and diastase. The tablets are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Many interesting experiments to test the digestive power of Stuart's Tablets show that one grain of the active principle contained in them is sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of raw meat, eggs and other wholesome food.

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like after dinner pills and cheap cathartics, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines without having any effect whatever in digesting food or curing indigestion.

If the stomach can be rested and assisted in the work of digestion it will very soon recover its normal vigor, as no organ is so much abused and overworked as the stomach.

This is the secret, if there is any secret, of the remarkable success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a remedy practically unknown a few years ago and now the most widely known of any treatment for stomach weakness.

This success has been secured entirely upon its merits as a digestive pure and simple because there can be no stomach trouble if the food is promptly digested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive power which weak stomachs lack and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of "tonics," "pills" and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be found at all drug stores and the regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit better than any other argument.

MANY REPUBLICANS

Will Attend Inauguration—Preparations Now Being Made.

Plans are already being laid by the Kentucky republican politicians to attend the inauguration of President Theodore Roosevelt on March 4, and if all the men go who have announced their intention to witness the ceremonies, Kentucky will have the biggest delegation in the history of the state.

Louisville republicans are preparing to arrange for a special train to Washington and are ascertaining as well as they can this far in advance how many will make the trip in order that the arrangements may be made with one of the railroads for a special train. The train will leave Louisville on the night of March 2 if the present plans are carried out, and will arrive in Washington the next afternoon. The party will probably divide in Washington and will take the regular trains home, as some of the men will remain in the capital longer than others.

Among the prominent republicans who expect to go to the inauguration are Richard P. Ernst, C. M. Barnett, Dr. T. H. Baker, Joseph A. Craft, Albert Scott, Clayton Blakey, former Gov. W. O. Bradley, Gen. Basil Duke, George W. Long, Sam Roberts, E. T. Franks, William Henry Jones, Dr. A. D. James, Dr. Ben Bruner, Logan C. Murray, Theodore Ahrens, Thomas L. Walker, Henry L. Stone, Augustus E. Wilson, George W. Welsh, J. Frank Taylor, Judge Jas. Denton, Judge George DuRelle and many others.

I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TOBACCO IS NOW MOVING RAPIDLY

Many Wagon Loads are Being Brought in From Country.

The Business Picking Up—Good Prices Are Being Paid By Those Buying It.

MARKET WILL STRENGTHEN

Tobacco is now moving, and scores of wagon loads have been brought to the city and unloaded at the re-handling houses and factories and more are coming in every day. The recent weather was fine for curing tobacco, and much, if not most of it, is now ready to be brought to the city. The local market will from now on pick up, and when the tobacco is prized public sales will increase. The holding of tobacco for high prices, which has created something of a stir in other counties, has not been much in evidence in this county. The Imperial Co. at Fifth and Clay is taking most of the tobacco now being brought in.

From the dark tobacco districts we learn of quite a change in temperature within the past week—from freezing cold to mild spring weather, says the Western Tobacco Journal. This has led to considerable stripping, and will likely lead to a large quantity of tobacco changing hands during the next ten days.

From Owensboro we hear of continued active buying on the part of the Imperial Tobacco company, while the American Tobacco company and Gallaher have not been doing so much of late. It is estimated the Imperial company has bought about a million pounds up to the close of last week, and all of the best crops, and, as near as can be ascertained, at 7, 7 and 2 cents and 7 1/2 and 2 cents. All purchases made so far were crops not controlled by the Society of Equity farmers organization, who are holding their crops at 8 cents round. Farmers who have sold are said to be well satisfied with prices, as they know the crop is by no means celebrated for extra fine quality or good color. We hear of no buying on the part of dealers and exporters, generally, so far in the country. At auction a few loads were sold this week, nearly all of which were common tobacco, at about 4, 3 and 2 cents, the principal buyer being Mr. Cook, for redrying.

From Henderson we learn that in the country buying has been more active, if not excited, than at any other point this season, with heavy buying by the Imperial and Gallaher companies, they being the only buyers in the market. It is understood that the former bought about 500,000 pounds and the latter about 300,000, with both in the field.

The bulk of the buying has been for good crops. The highest paid is reported as 6 1/2 cents around by Mr. I. G. Gist for the Imperial Tobacco company.

From Madisonville our correspondent hears of some very active buying in the Nebo and Manitou districts of good crops at 5 1/2 to 6 cents around, mainly for the Imperial Tobacco company, for delivery at Nebo, and also of their Slaughter'sville buyer purchasing freely last week in the country north of Madisonville and Hanson, having, it is stated, bought about 200,000 pounds at 5 1/2 to 6 cents around, for delivery at Slaughter'sville, and all good crops.

Gallaher's buyer was heard of in the Shiloh country, buying, but no particulars.

Local Inspector Ed. Miller's report today, the first for the year, is as follows:

Week Ending Jan. 6.

Receipts week, 58 hogsheads.
Receipts year, 58 hogsheads.
Sampled during week, 25 hogsheads.
Sample sales week, 7 hogsheads.
Sales week, 7 hogsheads.
Sales year, 7 hogsheads.

TRUSTEES MET

NEW MEMBERS DISCUSSED THE SCHOOL PROBLEMS.

They Want the Board Non-Partisan and Will Make It So.

An informal gathering of the new school trustees of Paducah was held last evening in Dr. Harry Williamson's office. Nothing of consequence was done or attempted. The trustees simply met to talk over the schools, and the idea that predominated was that the schools should be run as nearly as possible on a non-partisan basis, and solely in the interest of the people.

The new trustees have referred the selection of successors to the four Democratic trustees who resigned, to the two remaining Democratic trustees, Messrs. Morrison and Mattison. If they recommend good men, their recommendations will be concurred in. If their selections are not satisfactory, the new trustees will pick out others. Until the board meets, however, and the selections are reported, it cannot be foretold what will be done. It is likely that the gentlemen mentioned yesterday will not all be selected. Mr. Harry Judd can not serve, as he is an employee of a railroad company, and some other person will have to be picked in his place.

There have been a good many reports about the selection of the four new trustees, but the whole thing, as it now stands, is that politics will cut no figure in the selection of the four new ones. If they are men the six Republicans are satisfied will work for the interest of the schools, they will be elected. If not, others will be chosen. The selection has been left to the two remaining Democrats, and if their selections are satisfactory, which it is supposed they will be, the men they name will be elected no matter what their politics. One of the new trustees said today:

"It is not our intention to have any partisanship in this board; we want to run the schools as they have never been run before—give the city a board which will handle the school problems thoroughly and to the best advantage to the city."

"We desire to serve the people as we have pledged ourselves to do and hope we will be successful. This is why we want men in the board we know will work for the interests of the schools. If the Democratic members recommend men we think will improve and elevate the board and work with us for the schools, we will put them in."

CHINESE NEW YEAR

IT COMES ON FEBRUARY 3—NO
CELEBRATION HERE.

Chinamen All Over the Country Planning for the Anniversary.

The Chinese colony in Paducah is looking forward to the Chinese New Year with the usual pleasurable anticipations. It comes on February 3, and in cities where the Celestials are numerous, the celebrations are about the most gorgeous of the year, excepting none. The Chinese always have an unlimited supply of fireworks, and are not afraid to set them off. They also have feasts peculiar to their race, and in a manner befitting the customs of their country and the memory of their ancestors, spend the day in ostentation and enjoyment.

There never was but one celebration in Paducah, and that was several years ago. It was in front of the laundry on lower Broadway, and attracted a large crowd, but it was the first and last. The local Chinamen, however, always observe the day as one of rest and feasting, and this year are making preparations to enjoy it as usual, not desiring to have an elaborate celebration.

Cardigan

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

Copyright, 1901, by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

"Where is Rhemuel?" I asked.

"He is watching the Province House, sir. General Gage entertains tonight. It is all a ruse to quiet suspicion, sir. But we know what is on foot, Mr. Cardigan!"

So gossiping the lad served us with bread, cheese, pickled beef and a noggin of punch, and we listened, tearing at our food and gulping it like famished beasts of the woods.

Mount incased his huge frame in his spare buckskins. I once more dressed in my forest dress.

The lad brought us our arms, and I could have shouted aloud my joy as I

She lifted the lantern from the floor, belted in my knife, hatchet and bullet pouch and flung my rifle across my shoulder.

"Where is my horse?" I asked. "Have you looked to him, lad? By heaven, if aught of mischief has come to him!"

A moment later in the mews I heard a shrill whinny and the tattoo of shod hoofs dancing.

"Warlock!" I cried. The next instant my arms were around his neck.

CHAPTER XVII.

IT was nearly 10 o'clock. A freezing rain still swept the black Boston streets, with now and again a volley of hail rattling on closed shutters and swishing shop signs.

In the dark mews behind the Wild Goose tavern had gathered a shadowy company of horsemen, unfortunate patriots who had not been quick enough to leave the city before the troops shut its landward gates.

Some were for riding to the Neck and making a dash across the causeway. Some wanted boats, among the latter Jack Mount, who naturally desired to rid the town of his person as speedily as might be.

"There's a hempen neckcloth to fit my pipes in Queen street," he said plaintively, "and I desire it not, having no mind for flummery. Let us take a floatboat, in God's name, and get us to Charlestown with our horses while the rain endures."

"Aye," replied an officer of Roxbury minutemen. "But what if our horses neigh in midstream?"

"The Somerset ran out her deck guns at sunset," added another. "What if she turned her swivel on us?"

"And how if they swept us off the causeway with a chain shot?" asked Mount.

"What think you, Mr. Cardigan?" demanded an officer of Sudbury militia, leaning forward in his wet saddle to pat the dripping neck of his roan.

"I only know that I shall ride this night to Lexington," I said impatiently, "and I am at your service, gentlemen, by land or sea. Pray, you, decide quickly while the rain favors us."

"Is there a man among us dare demand a pass of the governor?" asked the Sudbury officer abruptly.

"I ride to Providence House," I said briefly. "Jack, fetch a cloak to hide your buckskins and wait me here. Gentlemen, I wish you fortune in your journey."

As I rode out into Cambridge street thunder boomed in the east, and I saw the forked lightning racing through ink heavens, veining the storm with jeweled signs.

In Hillier's lane I put Warlock to a gallop, but drew bridle in muddy Sudbury street, where from the darkness a strident voice called on me to halt.

"Who comes there?" repeated the voice. I heard the trample of horsemen and the clink of sabers striking stirrups.

Without giving them a glance I pushed through the cluster, wheeled into School street and cantered along Governor's alley.

There were torches lighted in the mews. An ostler took Warlock. I swung out of the saddle and stepped back to a shelter from the storm.

I stood for awhile in the rain among the throng of poor who had come to wait there in patience on the chance of a scrap from the servants' quarters after the servants had picked the bones their surfeited masters would scarcely deign to lick.

Once when the wind sharpened, shifted and blew the slanting rain from the north a warm odor of roasted butchers' meats came to us, and I could hear a hollow sound rising from the throng which was like a groan.

A hoarse cry broke out, wrung from the very vitals of the wretches around me.

"Silence!" shouted the officer of the gate guard. "Be off, I say!"

"That will not do," said another. "The town would flame if you drove the citizens from their own streets. Let them stand there. What harm are they doing?"

The voice sounded strangely familiar to me, so familiar that I involuntarily stepped out into the lighted space under the gate and peered at him through the rain, shielding my eyes with my hands.

The officer was Mr. Bevan.

Should I speak to him? Should I count on his friendship for me to get an audience with the governor? Here was a chance. He could vouch for me. So could Mrs. Hamilton.

As I hesitated somebody beside me clutched my elbow, and I swung around instantly, one hand on my hunting knife.

The next moment Sam Shemuel almost rolled at my feet in an ecstasy of humble delight, sniffling, writhing, breathing hard and clawing at my sleeve in his transports at sight of me. I seized his arm, drew him along the wall and into the dusky mews.

Impatient, yet touched, I suffered his mauling, demanding what news he might have, and he, beside himself with joy and excitement, could scarce find breath to pant out the news which concerned me. "I have seen Foxcroft," he gasped. "Mr. Foxcroft he has come today on dot Pomona frigate to Scarlet's wharf, twelve weeks from Queenstown, sir. It was printed in dot Evening Gazette, all about Foxcroft how he iss come from Sir Peter Warren to make some troubles for Sir John Johnson milt dot money he took from Miss Warren, sir!"

"Foxcroft! Here?" I stammered. "Yes, sir. I ran wit my legs to Queen street, and I told him how you wass in dot prison come, and he run mit his legs to Province House, but too late, for we hear dot bell ring and dogs guns shooting. And I said, 'Gott of Isaac, I bet you Jack Mount he has run away!' And Mr. Foxcroft he sees some dragoon soldiers come into Cornhill, calling out: 'Dose highwaymen iss gone! Vatch 'em by dot wall!' So Mr. Foxcroft he comes to Province House milt me, sir, and he iss gone in to make some troubles milt Governor Gage about Sir John Johnson and dot money of Miss Warren! Ach, here iss Mr. Foxcroft now, sir."

I turned to confront a stout, florid gentleman swathed in a riding cloak, whose little, angry eyes snapped as he cried: "Governor Gage is a meddling ass! I care not who listens to me, and I repeat, he is a meddling ass! Sir Peter Warren shall hear of this. Am I a free agent, damme? I take it that I am a free agent, yet I may not leave this town tonight for lack of a pass. But I'll go! They shall not stop me!"

The ostlers were all staring at him. I stepped toward him eagerly, but the peppery and inflamed barrister waved me off.

"Who the devil are you, sir?" he bawled. "Take your hands from me, sir! I wish to go to my client in Lexington and this Tory peacock will give me no pass! I will not suffer this outrage. I will appeal to—"

I gave him a jerk that shook the breath from his body, whispering in his ear: "Be silent, in heaven's name, sir! I am Michael Cardigan!"

"You? Cardigan?" he repeated. "Well, where the devil have you been, sir, and what the devil have you been about, sir? Eh?"

"I have been in prison, under sentence of death," I replied. "Where have you been, sir, to leave your client, Miss Warren, at the mercy of Walter Butler?"

"I've been in England, sir, that's where I've been!" he cried. "I've been there to find out why your blackguard Sir John had not only robbed her of her means, but of the very name she has a right to!"

"My dear sir, my dear friend," I cried. "I will get you your pass to clear the Neck tonight, and we will go together to find my cousin, Miss Warren. Wait me here, sir."

Then bidding Shemuel keep an eye on Warlock I hurried around to the gatehouse, where the rabble still slunk, watching the lighted windows with famished eyes.

The sentry halted me as I entered the courtyard, but when I asked for Mr. Bevan he called to a comrade to take my message. The next moment Bevan stepped into the moonlight.

"What is it, my man? Can I serve you?" he said pleasantly, peering at me.

A BAD DISORDER

In the fall of 1895 I contracted that fearful disease, Blood Poison. It gained such headway that I was forced to resign my position and seek relief at Hot Springs. After spending all the means I had I went to Memphis. In less than three weeks I was in a hospital, and after nine weeks of suffering I was discharged as cured. In less than a month every bone in my body seemed to be affected and felt as if they would break at the least exertion. Again I was compelled to resign, and I returned to the hospital for a seven weeks stay. When I came out I was advised to try farming. When I first went on the farm I prevailed on the only firm who handled drugs to get me one dozen bottles of S. S. S. At that time both of my hands were broken out with blisters and I was covered with boils and sores. In the meantime my druggist had gotten two dozen bottles of S. S. S. for me and I began its use, and after taking the thirteenth bottle not a sore or boil was visible. R. B. POWELL, East 9th St., Little Rock, Ark.

Of all human diseases, Contagious Blood Poison is the most hideous and hateful. The victim is tortured with eating ulcers, sores and abscesses, unsightly blotches, eruptions and other symptoms of the miserable disease. S. S. S. has been used successfully for nearly fifty years for Contagious Blood Poison. It contains no mercury, potash or other mineral. Our home treatment book gives all the symptoms of this disease. Medical advice free.

The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

"Do you not know me, Mr. Bevan?" I asked.

"Cardigan!" he stammered. "Is that you, Cardigan?"

He was close to me at a stride, both hands on my shoulders, his kindly, troubled eyes full of wonder and pity. He linked his gilded sleeve in my arm and drew me past the guardhouse, and ere I could protest I found myself inside the cloakroom.

"Can we not find a quiet corner hereabouts?" I asked. "I came to demand a pass for Lexington. Will you use your privilege with the governor, Bevan?"

Pleasant and Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasant remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used."

No Benefit No Cost.

If you are weak and worn-out—if you are nervous, irritable, have headache, backache, neuralgia, or periodical pains, it is because you have exhausted your nerve force.

If you cannot sleep, and are thus robbed of the rest which nature demands for the restoration of mental and physical vigor, your system will continue to run down.

Dr. Miles' Nerve restores vitality by soothing and strengthening the nervous system, thus inducing refreshing sleep, and imparting strength and vigor to all the organs of the body.

There are very few instances where Nerve will not benefit; if not, your druggist will refund the money.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve I had a very sour stomach, with pain extending far around on my left side—attended with extreme nervousness. I dreaded to have night come, as it was impossible for me to sleep. Everything I ate distressed me. Before I had finished one bottle of Nerve there was such a change that my husband bought six more, which has restored me to health."

MRS. JENNIE SIMMS, Rushville, Ind. Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

NINTH TIME

MR. J. D. BERRYMAN HAS BEEN CHAIRMAN OF SUPERVISORS.

One of the Best Informed Men in the State On Property.

Mr. J. D. Berryman, of Mechanicsburg, who is chairman of the board of county supervisors now in session at the county court house, is now serving his ninth successive term as a supervisor, and the ninth term as chairman of the board. Since he has been a resident of the county, however, Mr. Berryman has served on the city and county boards perhaps eighteen or twenty times all told, and he is considered one of the best authorities in the state on such matters.

The county board is allowed to sit but 25 days in all, but the court may extend its time, if necessary. A peculiar thing, however, is that although the county board has to go over and determine the accuracy of assessment of every piece of property both in the city as well as in the county outside the city, it usually manages to get through long before the city supervisors finish. The latter sometimes hold many weeks, never less than a month, but the county supervisors usually get through in twenty-one or two days. They canvass the books of the whole county, while the city supervisors only those for the city. Mr. Berryman says that when he first became a supervisor the total property valuation in the county was $5,000,000, while now it is over $10,000,000.

Both city and county boards are now hard at work on the assessments, preparing to send out notices of raises.

NO COMMITTEES.

President Ingram Will Wait Until Other President is Elected.

President George O. Ingram, of the council, stated this morning that he would not appoint his committees until the president of the board of aldermen is elected. "I want to confer with him," he said today, "and ascertain whether or not my appointments will be satisfactory to him. I do not think politics should be brought to play in the boards, and want to appoint men on my committees without regard to politics, and want to know what the president of the other board is going to do. Of course if he should be one who wanted to make it a matter of politics, it might be I should want to change some of my committees. I have made out a list of mine, but want to find out if they are satisfactory to the other president, and, of course, I have, for that reason, to wait until he is elected."

COW RAN AMUCK.

Attempted to Break Into Many Houses.

Employees of the Thompson Stock Yard had a hard time driving an unruly cow this morning.

The cow started into several houses and it was a hard matter to keep her from entering some of them. On South Twelfth street she started into a negro cabin, where the inmates were eating breakfast. Her heavy hoof beats startled the occupants when the cow jumped onto the porch and they ran out of the back door.

Officer Aaron Hurley was riding to the depot in a cab and assisted in keeping the cow straight until they got to the stock yards.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Moving Factory.

Mr. W. D. Cline, proprietor of the Paducah Mattress Co., is moving his plant to Third and Ohio streets, where a factory will be built for him. The present quarters on South Third street will be converted into a livery stable for Mr. Charles Clark. Mr. Cline will enlarge his factory by the addition of newer and up-to-date machinery.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, KY., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. SUR GRAMHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

A GOOD YEAR

SUTHERLAND MEDICINE COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS.

Made Last Year Over $50,000 Net Earnings Out of This Rapidly Growing Business.

The Sutherland Medicine company held its annual meeting of stockholders last night and received the report of the business for the past year.

It was the most prosperous year in the company's history, the balance sheet showing net earnings of over $50,000. A stock dividend of 50 per cent. was declared and a cash dividend of 10 per cent. This makes the capital now $105,000.

The annual election of officers was held and the old board of directors and officers were re-elected. The directors are Richard Rudy, H. R. Lindsay, W. F. Paxton, Abe Livingston and Charles Allcott, and the officers are Richard Rudy, president; H. R. Lindsay, vice president and general manager, and Charles Allcott, secretary.

The company now has a sales force of thirty-three men and does business in about two-thirds of the states. The indications for this year are very flattering for another year's business expansion. Last year's business showed an increase over the year before of over 50 per cent., and the management is confident of equaling it this year.

WILL FILED

Of the Late Henry Schmidt, the Grocer.

The will of the late J. Henry Schmidt was filed for probate in county court.

He made the will prior to the death of his wife and never changed it. His wife at the time of the making of his will was in the asylum at Hopkinsville and in the codicil he set apart two insurance policies of $1,000 each for her. Now that she is dead, the two thousand dollars will probably go into his estate for an equal division between heirs.

All the remainder of his property real and personal, he left to his two sons, Elbridge and Oscar, and in event of the death of one, the property shall go to his children, if he has any, and if not to his brother.

His brother George T. Schmidt, was appointed executor and qualified as such. He also qualified as guardian for the children.

Trunks Still Held.

The several trunks of the Ezra Kendall Co., which were attached yesterday by Mr. L. A. Lagomarsino, of Hotel Lagomarsino, for a bill amounting to a little over $8, are being held until the bill is paid. It seems the company ordered lunch in its special car which they refused to pay for, alleging it came too late. The company went to Nashville and left the trunks. Today a telegram was received saying that a check would be sent, but the trunks will be held until the money arrives.

POLICE COURT

BOYS ARRESTED HERE TAKEN TO PRINCETON, KY.

Roy Swift Charged With Disorderly Conduct—Other Cases That Were Tried.

Police Judge D. L. Sanders this morning ordered Milton Lenthoffer, Joe Wyner and Eddie Welsh, the three boys who broke into a box car and stole patent leather shoes, taken to Princeton and Officer Aaron Hurley and Scott Ferguson left at noon with them for that city.

The boys said they broke into the car and stole the shoes near Louisville, but did not get out until Princeton was reached. They sold a pair or two at Princeton and there will be tried.

The disorderly case against Roy Swift, white, was left open. The boy is alleged to have set his dog on cows. He was arrested recently for riding down the fire escape at the High school and for taking wheels from the school and riding them about the city until late in the afternoon.

Walter and Ed Scott and Fred Bahr, white, of the South Side, who fought before last engaged in a general fight, were arraigned and the case dismissed but the defendants recognized for their good behavior.

Vm. Reed, a white stranger, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk. A case against John Moore, colored, for using insulting language was continued until Monday.

L. Wilson, white, was fined $2 and costs for drunkenness.

NEXT SUNDAY.

Broadway May Be Finished—Delay by Bad Foundation.

The work of completing the bitulithic paving on Broadway has been delayed again by bad foundation.

On the north side of the street between Sixth and Seventh streets the concrete sank because of a spongy foundation and had to be dug out and filled in with crushed stone. This had to be done in smaller places further out on the same side of the street, and but for this the contractors would be finished and in Birmingham, Ala., where they have a big contract to fill. They expect now to finish by Sunday.

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

James McRae Charged With Serious Offense.

James McRae, who has been before the court for various offenses, is now under arrest charged with obtaining money by false pretenses.

It is alleged that Elmore Nicholson handed his overcoat to a young man named Alex Owen to hold and Owen thought McRae was Nicholson and asked him if he was not the fellow who gave him the coat. McRae is alleged to have claimed the coat and sold it. His case will come up tomorrow in police court.

The request results from action months ago of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Co., which holds a special charter from the Kentucky legislature, increasing at once its capital stock by $40,000,000, and at the same time authorizing its directors in their discretion to increase it an additional $60,000,000. At that time Judge Humphrey, for the company, paid into the treasury of Kentucky the sum of $40,000, that amount being one-tenth of 1 per cent. of the $40,000,000 increase of capital. No offer of organization tax was made for the additional $60,000,000.

WANT WATER.

Petition Asking For Extension of Water Mains at Tennessee Street.

The residents of the Mayfield road seven squares beyond the terminal of the water mains on Tennessee street want water and are circulating a petition to have the mains extended.

The petition will be signed by many property owners and if they are successful they will have fire protection as well as water.

That portion of the city is building up rapidly and in the vicinity of the old fair grounds a regular plat has been laid off and lots sold. It is becoming a favorite residence portion for the railroad men.

Theatrical Notes

The Tennessee arrived last night from Tennessee river.

Several new barges for the United States Gas, Coal and Coke Co. have been launched at the foot of Ohio streets.

The Fannie Wallace is expected from the mines today with coal.

The gauge today is 9.3, a rise of two-tenths since yesterday. It is expected that the river will rise a foot or more by tomorrow or Sunday, and if there is rain in the meantime above, it may go higher. The weather is cool and bracing.

The Dick Fowler skipped out on time for Cairo this morning.

Many have gone through the new Kentucky today. She is a pretty and substantial steamer.

The John S. Hopkins leaves tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for Evansville. There has never been any intention of sending her out before that time.

The J. T. Duffy left for Tennessee river.

The I. N. Hook is due tomorrow from Cumberland river with ties.

The Beaver left for Cincinnati with lumber.

The Butterff is due tomorrow or Sunday, and leaves Monday for Clarksville.

The Harth came in from Caseyville yesterday with a tow of corn. She was formerly the Uncle Sam, and has been rebuilt and repainted.

Some idea of the amount of business done by the Eagle Packet Co. of St. Louis, which has its boats in winter quarters up at Duck's Nest, above Paducah, may be gained from the following from yesterday's Globe-Democrat:

"The Eagle Packet company had a good passenger business last summer, the Spread Eagle having carried 48,790 passengers, the Cape Girardeau 16,896, Grey Eagle, 11,933 and Bald Eagle, 6,263; total 83,882."

The Mary N. is again in commission after being out two or three weeks putting in new boilers.

The Castalia is doing harbor work.

The Margaret arrived from Tennessee river with ties.

The Joe Fowler is due Sunday from Evansville, and returns Monday morning.

Captain Robert E. Lee realizes that in view of smaller profits in the business, the rapid deterioration and enormous expense of repair to wooden boats a new condition presents itself and that the day of wooden boats is past. The Lee Line is figuring on two new boats which are to be built of steel on lines to meet the conditions of the times. This is now the best steamboat line on the Western rivers and while others have gone down before the change in conditions which they did not know how to meet, the Lee Line has gone on to prosperity. The genius and brains which have brought it to success are embodied in Capt. Robert E. Lee, the manager of the line.

The ill-fated Defender, which blew up, burned and sank at Huntington, was formerly the S. L. Wood, regarded as one of the best towboats on the river. She belonged to the M. R. C. C. and C. Co., of Pittsburgh, and will prove a total loss.

Captain William O. Martin, an old Ohio river and Kanawha river pilot, died at his home in Gallipolis Monday night last, aged 74.

The Nashville American says: "Today's cold weather has caused great discouragement among the river men, as forecasting a certain fall in the river and a possible suspension of operations with the upper Cumberland. Yesterday it looked very much like rain and more water, but today the prospects are all the other way. The upper river is already falling fast. Capt. Gallagher, of the Nashville Transportation Company, was looking for the arrival of the Linehan about the end of the week from the upper Cumberland, but the rapid fall makes it doubtful whether she will be able to make the trip. The Linehan was carrying about 4,000,000 of timber in barges when last heard from. The J. B. Richardson arrives today and leaves tomorrow for Evansville. The Dudley arrives tomorrow, leaving on Thursday for Albany Landing. The wharfbat is now on the move from Pittsburgh to Paducah, having left on December 28. She is being towed down the Ohio by the Clinton, and was last heard from at Shawneetown, Ind., where she stopped for a load of corn. The New Orleans boats are also on the move and will reach Paducah in about ten days.

THREE WISE MEN.

This is Feast of Epiphany the Anniversary of Their Visit to Bethlehem.

Today is the feast of the Epiphany. The Roman Catholic population of the city understand the religious significance of the day, and it is very probable that Catholic and non-Catholics have read of heard of the pretty legends attached to the day.

In the religious world it celebrates the visit of the three wise men, who at the dawn of the twelfth day after the birth of the Christ child, discovered the wonderful Star of Bethlehem, and thus found the manger that cradled the baby in Bethlehem's blue plains.

They were three wise men, and they came, it is said, from Eastern Arabia—at least the herbs and spices they brought, together with frankincense and myrrh were known to grow only in that country.

They became followers of the Christ child and afterwards were canonized saints.

The day is celebrated in Spain on an equal scale with Christmas. It is in fact, called "Little Christmas." On the eve of Little Christmas in Sweden and Norway the peasants bind sheaves of wheat on tall poles, so that the birds may feast and thus bring good luck to the family during the coming year.

The day is not a holiday in America, although it is in the Catholic countries of the Old World. In Russia the day is celebrated and is known as the Russian Christmas.

SWELL STAND.

Has Been Designed For the Ball Park.

Architect Wm. Brainerd this morning finished the plans for the new Wallace park baseball grandstand and bids will be advertised for at once.

The grand stand is designed to seat about 2,000, twice as many as the old stand could conveniently seat and will extend from the ground on up. The first grandstand had seats beginning about three feet off the ground.

The stand will have three sides, and back of the last row of seats on top will be a promenade which will enable the people to get to the seats easier and without crawling all over each other during a packed stand.

Another improvement is in boxes. The middle of the stand will have twelve boxes, the choice seats in the stand.

36 YEARS AGO.

Dr. Brooks Came to Paducah and He's Still Glad Of It.

Dr. J. G. Brooks was figuring on a tablet when a reporter called today. "I am just settling every debt I owe in the world," he explained, "something I do on the 6th day of January every year. You see the 6th day of January, 36 years ago, I came to Paducah and have done this same thing every year of my life, since my advent here. I want to be straight with everybody, and now I have succeeded again."

Dr. Brooks is one of the most prominent doctors in the city and has served the city creditably on several occasions as school trustee and councilman.
